

Exhibition booths in the Multi-Purpose Hall

Many different exhibition booths will be featured in the Multi-Purpose Hall from July 4 (Tue) to July 8 (Sat). Please stop by and meet the exhibitors below.

[JMTA Branch Booths]

Japanese Music Therapy Association (JMTA) has approximately 5,500 members as of 2016, and there are nine regional branches. Among them, eight branches (Hokkaido, Tohoku, Kanto, Shinetsu/Hokuriku, Tokai, Kinki, Chugoku, and Shikoku) will have booths to provide the information of their services and local characteristics.

Exhibition Contents: Display, description, and sales of regional publications and journals; overviews of regional conferences; presentation of unique cultures in each region; etc. At the booth of the Tohoku branch of JMTA, you can purchase goodies (quilted clothes, pouch bags, small accessories, etc.). These goodies are handcrafted by the survivors of the 2011 Great East Japan Earthquake who still live in temporary housing.

[JMTA-Approved School Booths]

There are 19 JMTA-approved schools nationwide. Please stop by each school's booth to know about its music therapy programs and activities. It will be a great networking and learning opportunity as well.

Exhibiting Schools

Heisei College of Music, Ibaraki Music Academy, International College of Music Therapy, Kunitachi College of Music, Mukogawa Women's University, Nagano Medical Hygiene College, Nagoya College of Music, Nihon University College of Art, Sapporo Otani University, Seitoku University, Showa University of Music, Showa Graduate School of Music, Toho College of Music

[Merchandise Booths]

Musical instruments and music-therapy related publications, including the ones written by presenters of this congress, will be available. Open hours will be announced at the Hall.

[Others]

Japan Education Council for Music Therapist, World Federation of Music Therapy, foreign universities offering music therapy programs, and other related organizations will exhibit booths.