
JAPANESE JOURNAL OF MUSIC THERAPY

Vol.17 / No.1 2017

CONTENTS

■ Special Issue: Cooperation with other professions

Introduction: Cooperation between music therapy and other professions	Kenji Tsuchino	3
Cooperation between music therapists and other professionals in medical settings: sharing of information	Yuka Okumura	4
Cooperation between music therapists and other professionals in psychiatric settings: reviewing my work as a full-time music therapist in psychiatric settings	Minako Cho	12
Cooperation between music therapists and other professionals in social welfare settings	Natsuki Morita	19
Thought on cooperation with other professions: What music therapists can contribute and potential benefits	Yuko Shoji	25
Cooperation with other professions in the field of social welfare	Mayumi Hiraishi	31
Cooperation with other professionals in school settings	Yuka Negishi	35

■ Original Paper

Music Therapy Corresponding to the Characteristics of Different Types of Dementia —an investigation of patients with Alzheimer's disease and subcortical ischemic vascular dementia—	Mari Fukuda, Masayuki Satoh, Hiroataka Kida, Ken-ichi Tabei, Keita Matsuura Yoshio Watanabe, Kimiko Yoshimaru, Makiko Abe, Mariko Shiga, Hidekazu Tomimoto	41
--	---	----

■ Book Reviews		53
----------------------	--	----