
JAPANESE JOURNAL OF MUSIC THERAPY

Vol.18 / No.1 2018

CONTENTS

■ Special Issue: Cooperation with Other Professions II

Introduction to the Special Issue	Kenji Tsuchino	3
Music Therapy and Public Administration	Setsu Inoue	5
Specialization of Music Therapists and Requirements for Cooperation with Other Professionals	Kyoko Watanabe	10
Cooperation with Other Professions in Palliative Care Units	Miho Kitagawa	17
Cooperation with Other Professions for Palliative Care in Patients' Homes: Music Therapists' Perspectives	Yuko Yonekura	23
Cooperation between Music Therapists and Judicial Professionals	Kakuko Matsumoto	29
Cooperation between Professionals in the Fields of Music Therapy and School Education: Expectations for Music Therapy	Hitoshi Takayama	38

■ Research Project Papers from the 7th Round of Research Grants

Demonstration of the Objective Validity of Music Therapy: an Attempt to Measure Its Effect by a New Method of Autonomic Nervous Function Evaluation, 'Balance Index' —The First Report: Verification of the Healing Effect of 1/f Music—	Mayu Kondo, Yukio Goto, Shigeki Okino, Munetaka Haida	52
---	---	----

■ Research Project Papers from the 9th Round of Research Grants

Effects of Music Listening on Brain Response —Modulation of Visual Cognitive Processes by Music—	Izumi Morikawa, Minoru Hoshiyama	65
---	----------------------------------	----

■ Original Paper

Pain Relieving Effects of Music Therapy on Elderly Persons Using Sensory Integrated Music Therapy for Elderly (SIMTE) Based Sensory Integration Theory	Michiko Nuki, Chiaki Oshiyama	77
---	-------------------------------	----

■ Case Report

Successful Respiratory Training and Music Therapy for a Patient with Chronic Respiratory Failure Who Developed Psychological Symptoms after Hospitalization due to Exacerbation —Follow-Up Analysis Using "Illness Trajectory Framework"—	Mitsuko Fujii, Seigo Fukuda	87
---	-----------------------------	----

■ Book Reviews		95
----------------------	--	----