
JAPANESE JOURNAL OF MUSIC THERAPY

Vol.25 / No.1 2025

CONTENTS

■ Special Feature: Sharing Perspectives on Music Therapy

A Special Feature: "Sharing Perspectives on Music Therapy"	Yuriko Takada	3
On Sharing Music Therapy Research: Perspectives from Qualitative and Quantitative Researchers	Nanami Nakaya, Mayu Kondo, Kenji Yamamoto	4
Sharing Music Therapy Matters with Following Generations: To Nurture its View	Yuriko Takada	9
Sharing the Concept of Music Therapy with Society	Izumi Futamata	13
Sharing the Source: A Study Group to Share Music Therapy Matters with Fellow Colleagues	Rika Ikuno	17
Sharing Music Therapy Matters with Other Professionals from the Perspective of a Practitioner	Takayuki Nasu	23
Approaches to 'Sharing' in Practical Settings - Creating Music Therapy Together	Reiko Koyanagi	29

■ Other Paper

What Constitutes the Professional Identities of Japanese Music Therapists? —An Interview Analysis on their Experiences under the COVID-19 Disaster—	Rika Ikuno, Yumi Tahara	35
--	-------------------------	----

■ Book Reviews	49
----------------------	----